

Saudi Arabia could undergo through serious attacks and confusion.

It is believed to be one of those countries controlling oil prices globally, affecting many countries and corporations around the globe, indirectly and severely oppressing some countries and corporations globally. It could be the very first country to see its upheaval sooner than other countries on our list of prediction. It has very strong enemies, and few strong allies. Nevertheless its trend of hard aspect is on horizon. It appeared that it could get double-Nuked even though the effecting area would be at the edge of division #11, and #8.

See Nuclear Attack on Hiroshima on August 6, 1945 for an example. A nuclear attack usually involves one negative major planet in division #11, and one moving Uranus in division #8 when it turned negative.

Remember now we are fully at Nuclear age, it started at the second part of WW2 (World War 2). It would be risky to ignore this trend. Check out our FAQ on how to go about defending yourself, do it in timely manner, it appeared you may not have enough time.

This is another strong episode (upheaval) of Saudi Arabia hard aspect. On this one Saudi does have time for preparation for defense. We will not comment much on this one but do pay attention to Pluto-opposition-Pluto. It is one of the most difficult test human have to go through.
